Monterey CA - November 2013

In memory of our friend and colleague, Dawn Mehlhaff

With sadness we regretfully note the passing of Dawn Mehlhaff, a member of CHDS cohort 1205/1206.

She will be greatly missed by her classmates, professors and the CHDS family. The Center staff and faculty will join with the cohort in commemorating her life when the cohort convenes for their next in-residence session in January.

Dawn was the Director of Legislative and External Affairs with the California Emergency Management Agency and had previously worked in state government with the California Department of Corrections as well as the California Secretary of State's Office.

She is survived by her husband, Terry, and their beloved dog, Axle.

A celebration of Dawn's life is scheduled at 11 a.m. (PST) Wednesday, Nov. 20, at Rolling Rock Hills Church, 800 White Rocks Road, El Dorado Hills, California.

Donations in lieu of flowers may be sent to:

El Dorado Hills County Animal Services
415 Placerville Dr, Suite N
Placerville, CA 95667

-- People may write "Pet Aid Donation in memory of Dawn Mehlhaff" on their checks.

CHDS' thoughts and prayers are with Dawn and her family.

Dawn's obituary can be read in the Sacramento Bee.
